WSP USA INSPECTION SERVICES DISASTER AWARENESS REPORT

April 29, 2021

Severe Weather Activity

- Severe weather brought flooding and tornadoes that caused damage in parts of Oklahoma, Missouri and other states overnight and into Wednesday afternoon.
- Flooding was reported in Branson, Missouri, as well as several other areas, including Abilene, Texas, and Bentonville, Arkansas.
- An EF1 tornado was confirmed near Stillwell, Oklahoma, where several homes and barns were damaged when storms moved through around 6:15 a.m. Wednesday, according to the National Weather Service.
- There were at least 10 reports of tornadoes from the same storm system on Tuesday in eastern Colorado, northwestern Texas and southern Oklahoma. Hail between 3 and 4 inches in diameter was reported in parts of Colorado and Texas.
- The severe weather is expected to continue its trek across the country through Wednesday and into Thursday.
- "A quadruple threat of flooding rain, large hail, damaging thunderstorm winds and a few tornadoes is in play from Texas to the Ohio Valley through Thursday," weather.com senior meteorologist Jonathan Erdman said Wednesday afternoon.

Disaster Update

DR 4595 Kentucky

- The Governor has requested federal funding to assist more counties severely impacted by the Feb. 27–March 14, 2021, flooding.
- The governor has asked the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to conduct damage assessments in the following 26 counties that also reported significant damages to residences: Anderson, Bell, Boyd, Calloway, Clark, Fayette, Franklin, Greenup, Jackson, Jessamine, Knott, Laurel, Lawrence, Leslie, Letcher, Lincoln, Madison, Mercer, Morgan, Owsley, Perry, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Todd, Warren and Woodford.
- Following the assessment from FEMA, which will take place in the next several weeks, a determination will be made on each county's eligibility to participate.
- President Biden granted a Major Disaster Declaration for the Commonwealth of Kentucky Friday, April 23. The President's recent action makes federal funding available to help individuals and communities in the counties of Breathitt, Clay, Estill, Floyd, Johnson, Lee, Magoffin, Martin and Powell.
