Declaration Request

Tennessee (Update)

- U.S. Senator Marsha Blackburn (R-Tenn.) led the entire Tennessee delegation in urging President Joe Biden to swiftly approve Governor Bill Lee's request for a Major Disaster Declaration following the deadly December 10 and 11 storms.
- They sent a letter to the president asking him to grant Lee's request for a major disaster declaration and provide individual assistance for Cheatham, Davidson, Dickson, Gibson, Henderson, Henry, Lake, Obion, Stewart, Sumner, Weakley and Wilson counties.
- West and Middle Tennessee experienced two lines of severe weather that began on the evening of December 10, 2021 and continued into the morning of December 11, 2021.
- The combination of heavy rain, powerful thunderstorms, and tornadic activity damaged roads, homes, and businesses as the storms moved northward into Kentucky. Hazardous travel conditions, power outages, and damage to water infrastructure have been reported across the affected areas.
- Five people lost their lives because of this severe weather, and seventy-four more were reported injured as a result of the storms.
- The National Weather Service (NWS) has now upped the tornado count in Middle Tennessee from the December 10 & 11 outbreak to 17.
